Empowering Team Managers to boost learning and development

This 45-minute session will offer useful insights for all team managers—whether they're managing several teams or dedicated to a single team. Managers are essential to the adoption of learning tools and to the creation of learning habits. This webinar will support team managers on that journey.

In addition to sharing fundamentals about permissions and key features, this webinar will help you:

- Establish a learning rhythm. Build a regular habit of learning for your team(s) and develop different ways to sustain that momentum with your learners.
- Assess your team's skills. Understand how to track skill development over time by leveraging Pluralsight features like channels and Skill IQ.
- Gather valuable insights. Learn which analytics in Pluralsight can help you have productive conversations, whether you're guiding direct reports or demonstrating impact to leaders.
