Plan admins are the only users who can request information about a team plan. No information about the plan's licenses, learners, plan admins, or plan will be shared with anyone who is not a plan admin.

Only plan admins and team managers (depending on your permission settings) are able to invite new learners, remove learners, or move learners between teams within a plan.

Plan admins can also submit a Data Subject Access Request (DSAR) to permanently delete data for users associated with their plans. See Deleting data for Pluralsight Skills team plan users.

All usage and content completion within a team plan is available to plan admins and team managers (depending on your permission settings) through .

Individuals within the team plan can ask to be removed from the plan by contacting Support using the link below. Once removed, the individual's account will remain intact—however, there will be no associated subscription.

Individuals within the plan can contact Pluralsight Support using the link below for questions regarding how to join a plan and Skills features and experiences.
