Tags: Flow

Features and major changes

- GitPrime is now Flow! With the transition, we now have a unified Pluralsight look and feel. We've also created a unified Pluralsight login and billing experience.

For more information, check out our article about GitPrime's transition to Flow.

Resolved issues

- Deleted commits appearing in the aPI
- Daily Update not using the active user's current timezone
- Users on teams and Users not on teams quick filter not displaying correctly
- Work log sort order incorrect
- Unable to clear targets once saved
- Changing username or email after unified Pluralsight login

Miscellaneous updates and fixes

- The Merge Users on Login for SSO setting is now a default during SSO setup and managed by Pluralsight ProServ
- Org membership updates are now published
