Mobile and offline apps

Android

If you prefer listening to your courses instead of watching them, now you can listen to courses with our Android audio player. Click on the headphones icon on a video course to start listening.

iOS

Now it's easier to check what you know by taking a learning check after you finish a module. You'll only be asked about content from the module you just completed, and if you'd rather take the learning check after you've completed the whole course, you can still do that.
