

Flow release: March 11, 2022

Tags: Flow

Features and major changes

- Flow now has two plans: Core and Plus. Each plan includes different reports, features, and levels of access. Existing customers will have Plus plan access. For more information about these plans and what's included, check out the Flow plan comparison article. Flow Help Center articles now have a chart at the top to help you understand which plan has access to the functionality presented in the article.

Who can use this?

| Core | Plus |

To see which plan you're on, click your name in the upper right corner of your screen in Flow. In the menu, Flow shows you if you're on the Core plan or the Plus plan.

Resolved issues

- Unable to see all labels on the histograms in the PR resolution report
- Metrics and benchmarks showing incorrectly in email reporting
