It's now easier than ever to invite new users to the Skills platform, and to add team managers.

Adding new users

The Add new user modal has an updated design to make it easier to invite new users via email or via link. You can access the new modal by clicking Add new user on the Directory tab of the People page \(opens in new tab\).

Adding managers

The Add manager modal has been streamlined to make it faster for you to add new team managers to the platform. And now you can—right in the platform—set customized manager permission levels while adding new managers. You can access the new modal by clicking Add new manager on the Managers tab of the People page (opens in new tab).
