

What happens if I fail my Google Cloud certification exam?

Tags: ACC

Note: please visit Google Cloud's website for all up to date information.

If you fail the exam the first time, you need to wait 14 days before you can retake it and you have to pay the full fee every time you retake the exam.

If you fail a second time, the wait time increases to 60 days and the third time you have to wait 365 days before attempting again.

Make sure to reach out to the community in our discussion forums \(opens in new tab\) or directly to our Google Guru, Mattias Andersson \(opens in new tab\) if you need further help with your exam preparation.

If you need help, please email Pluralsight Support \(opens email form\) for 24/7 assistance.
