

How do I change my ACG membership?

Tags: ACG

If you want to change your membership plan, you can do so by downgrading or upgrading at any time.

What happens if I change my subscription during the 7-day free trial?

You can switch subscription types at any point during the trial. This will not change the original trial end date.

Note: To access the free trial you'll need to sign up for a membership. During sign up, you'll see the last day of your free trial noted at the bottom of the pricing page on the right side of the screen.

The screenshot shows a 'Purchase Summary' table with the following items:

Plan	Price
Personal Basic · Monthly	$35.00 USD
<hr/>
Order Subtotal	$35.00 USD
Sales Tax
Monthly Total
<hr/>
Due Today	$0.00 USD

Below the table, there is a green button that says 'Includes 7-Day Free Trial'. At the bottom, there is a blue information box with a white 'i' icon and the text: 'You will not be charged until after your trial ends on December 16th, 2021.' A pink arrow points to the bottom-left corner of the information box.

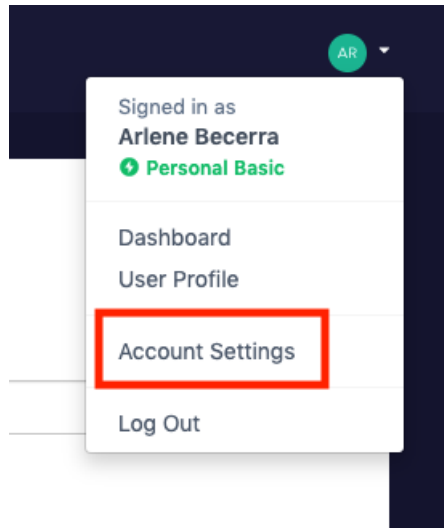

What happens if I change my subscription after the 7-day free trial?

Any upgrades to your plan after the 7-day free trial will take effect immediately. If you downgrade your membership after the 7-day free trial, you will retain access to the features associated with your current plan until the date of your next renewal.
