Global releases

A fresh new look

Skills has begun updating the look of several pages on the Skills platform. More than just new colors, the updated pages have been redesigned with accessibility in mind to make it easier for both learners and leaders to find what they need and achieve their goals. Continue to watch over the next few weeks as additional pages on the platform get their redesign makeover.

Category filter

Now it's even easier to find the content you need to skill up. The Skills search results page now includes a category filter, which dynamically populates based on what's available in the search results.
